

BEFORE THE STATE ETHICS COMMISSION
STATE OF GEORGIA

In the Matter of

Mark Taylor,

Respondent

) Case No. : 2006-0039
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)

Order for the Complainant's Motion for Interlocutory Injunction

On September 1, 2006, the Complainant, Marty Klein, in the above-styled matter on behalf of the Georgia Republican Party, by and through his undersigned counsel, filed a Motion for Interlocutory Injunction to enjoin the Respondent, Mark Taylor, from retaining and spending campaign contribution funds that Complainant alleges were illegal and in violation of the Ethics in Government Act. The motion was considered by the State Ethics Commission at its September 21, 2006 meeting. After due consideration of this matter, the Commission voted to deny the motion.

WHEREFORE, the Commission hereby DENIES the Complainant's Motion for Interlocutory Injunction.

So ORDERED this 30th day of November, 2006

STATE ETHICS COMMISSION

By:

Jack Williams
Chairman